If taxpayer is a consolidated elected taxpayer group, does it elect to include its non-U.S. entities?  Yes  No

Note: This only applies to a consolidated elected taxpayer group that did not have any non-U.S. entities at the time it made the initial election to consolidate. If the group subsequently acquired such a person at the requisite level of ownership and control, it must choose to either include or exclude the non-U.S. entities at the time of acquisition. This election is binding for the remainder of the eight calendar quarters of the initial consolidated election.
